

The opportunity for personal spiritual growth exists in a prison cell.

The Prison Phoenix Trust encourages prisoners in the development of their spiritual lives, through the practices of meditation and yoga, working with silence and the breath. We offer personal support to prisoners around the UK through teaching, workshops, correspondence, books and newsletters. We work with people of any faith, or of none, and honour all religions. We are a registered UK charity.

The work of the PPT is entirely dependent on the generosity of people who understand the rehabilitative opportunity which exists in a prison cell and appreciate our work with prisoners. If you can help us financially with a contribution of any size, we would be most grateful.
